INVITATION from MARRICKVILLE COUNCIL

Arlington Reserve Improvement Works

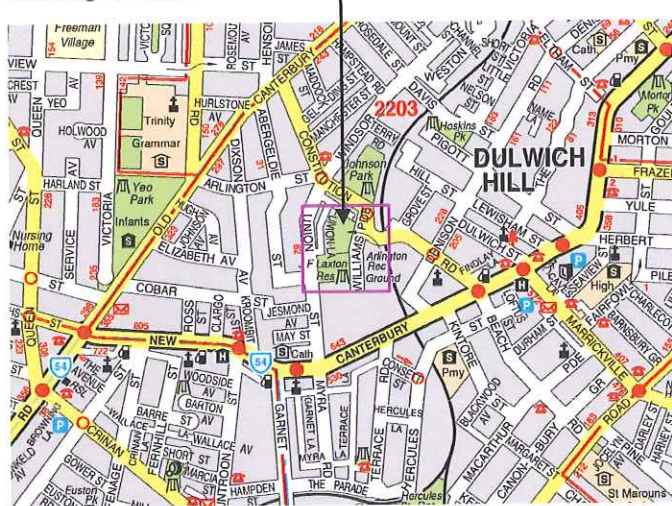

Marrickville Council invites you to attend an informal community information session to discuss your views and questions about plans for park improvement works at Arlington Reserve (see over leaf for details).

Time: 9am - 12pm Sunday 16 August 2009

Venue: Arlington Reserve, Dulwich Hill
(near Williams Parade entry)

Meeting Location

Marrickville Council has allocated funding within the 2009/10 Capital Works Budget for the refurbishment of Arlington Reserve subject to financial and site feasibility. The proposed works involve the installation of a synthetic sports turf surface and upgrading of the existing retaining wall and associated seating.

A draft plan for the improvements is enclosed for your information. Comments from the community are invited and will be taken into consideration in finalising plans for the works to be constructed.

We look forward to seeing you at the community session and/or receiving your comments in writing. The information session is an opportunity to find out more about these proposed improvements from Council Officers.

To make your submission please use the reply paid comment form enclosed or mail your comments to: Parks and Reserves, Marrickville Council, PO Box 14, Petersham NSW 2049. Comments may also be made on-line at www.marrickville.nsw.gov.au. Submissions close Friday 4 September 2009.

If you require further information about the community meeting or the draft concept plan please contact Council's Citizen's Service Centre on 9335-2222.

Yours Faithfully

Richard Sage
Manager Parks and Reserves
